Value-add opportunity on beautiful Town Mountain just over two miles from downtown Asheville and less than 10 minutes to the Blue Ridge Parkway. This 1950s ranch offers phenomenal long-range southern views, with the flexibility to update and move in, undertake a full renovation, or start fresh from the foundation. The main level includes an eat-in kitchen and large living/dining area with original hardwood floors split by a central fireplace. Downstairs offers two additional bedrooms, a full bathroom, and a family room/flex space. Outside, the 1.29 acre property includes established annuals with seasonal variety and a flat, circular driveway. Several previous-owner-added features, including enclosed, exterior storage areas and the primary bedroom addition (ceiling under 7') are not included in the heated square footage.
